Addendum to Restrictive Covenants for Braeswood Estates, Lots 1-6
Dated July 1, 2005

Whereas, a subdivision known as Braeswood Estates just outside of the City of Quincy, County of Adams and State of Illinois, has a set of protective covenants on record at the Adams County courthouse recorded in Book 92 of Miscellaneous at page 582, the homeowners of record elect to add the following addendum for the purpose of enhancing the quality of life in the subdivision:

No household pets shall cause or create a nuisance or unreasonable disturbance. Dog barking shall be prohibited to the best of owner's ability between the hours of 10pm and 7am. Should a pet become a nuisance or cause unreasonable disturbance and the majority of lot owners within the subdivision agree, the pet owner shall have 3 days to permanently remove the pet from the property upon written notice.

This addendum agreed to this 1st day of July, 2005:
